Forty Hours' Devotion Ends. The forty hours' devotion closed at St. Mary's church Tuesday morning with the same ceremony as marked the opening of the feast: a procession of about fifty boys and girls of the parish escorting the sacrament through the aisles of the church. The sacrament was borne by Father Galvia, accompanied by the other priosts of the mass. There was a large attendance at all the masses Tuesday and it is estimated that there were 1,500 who received the sacrament during the three days. This devotion is privileged to be held in each parish church of the diocese once a year and is held at St. Mary's the second Sunday in December. The sanctuary and alter

My Dear Mr. Parsons: I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter in knowledge the receipt of your letter in which you inquire concerning the law relative to the registration of allen enemies and the obtaining of permits.

The Department of Justice will probably within a few days announce the regulations promulgated by the Attor-ney General in accordance with the Proclamation of the President. Until we obtain thees regulations, we are proceeding under the old proclamation of April 6, 1917. This requires that every alien enemy who goes into a prohibited area should obtain a permit from the United States Marshai. I believe that all the alien enemies in the state are familiar with this proc-lamation. If, per-hance, one of them lamation. If, per-lance, one of them has been in a restricted area without a permit, he is, of course, liable to immediate arrest. The restricted areas embrace among other things, places within one-half mile of any factory manufacturing goods for the army and navy. There are other territories restricted, but this would be the principal one.

The permits allow them to go into thees restricted areas. I shall be very pleased to notify you of the regula tions of the Attorney General when they are promulgated.

Respectfully.

Stomach Dead Man Still Lives

People who suffer from sour stomach, fermentation of food, distress after exting and indigestion, and seek relief in large chunks of artificial digestors, are killing their stomachs by inaction just as surely as the victim of morphine is deadening and injuring beyond repair every nerve in his body.

What the atomach of every sufferer from indigestion needs is a good prescription that will build up his stomach, but strength, energy, and elasticity into it, and make it sturdy enough to digest a hearty meal without artificial aid. aid.

The best prescription for indigestion ever written is sold by druggists everywhere and by The Lee & Osgood Co., and is rigidly guaranteed to build up the stomach and cure indigestion, or money back.

This prescription is named Mi-o-na, and is sold in small tablet form in large boxes, for only a few cents. Remember the name, Mi-o-na stomach tablets. They never fall.
